The Drama Club was invited to perform as part of the tribute ceremony honouring Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel on his birth anniversary. The performance reflected themes of national unity, leadership and the monumental role Patel played in shaping modern India.

Through theatrical narration, character portrayal and emotional staging, the act highlighted Patel's perseverance, vision and contribution to India's independence and post-independence integration. The audience response was warm and appreciative, recognizing the effort and sincerity in presenting an event rooted in India's historical foundation.

The performance strengthened the Club's experience with cultural event collaborations and encouraged members to explore historical storytelling with accuracy and artistic depth.
