

LITERARY CLUB REPORT

EVENT NAME: HOUSE OF SECRETS

ORGANIZING CLUB: LITERARY CLUB

DATE: 20th NOVEMBER, 2024.

TIMING: 12:00 p.m. to 4:50 p.m.

VENUE: NHCE CAMPUS

On November 20th, the Literary Club hosted an exhilarating event titled "House of Secrets", a treasure hunt combined with a gripping murder mystery. The event was designed to challenge participants' wit, teamwork, and problem-solving skills.

Each batch consisted of 10 teams, with 5 members per team, competing to solve the mystery. The activity was spread across 5 tasks, including decoding Morse code, solving aptitude puzzles, etc, all set at various locations across the campus. Successfully completing a task granted teams a crucial piece of evidence needed to solve the overarching murder mystery.

The top 5 teams from each batch advanced to the final round, where they pieced together the clues they had gathered to crack the murder case. The event was conducted in two batches, drawing an overwhelming response, with 100 participants enthusiastically taking part.

"House of Secrets" proved to be a thrilling blend of mystery and adventure, leaving participants with an unforgettable experience.

Event poster -

GLIMPSES FROM THE EVENT

