

LITERARY CLUB REPORT

EVENT NAME: NHMUN 2025

ORGANIZING CLUB: LITERARY CLUB

DATE: 7th AND 8th of APRIL 2025

VENUE: NHCE CAMPUS

NHMUN 2025 (New Horizon Model United Nations) was held on the 7th and 8th of April, organized by the Literary Club at New Horizon College of Engineering. Model United Nations (MUN) is a simulation of the United Nations where students, representing delegates, debate global issues and craft diplomatic solutions.

The event brought together students from various institutions to engage in thoughtful discussions on both national and international matters.

The inauguration ceremony, hosted by Anagha, began with a graceful classical dance performance by Abhira Mishra, followed by an invocation song by SV Aradhya. Dr. Anitha S Rai, Director of Library and Alumni Relations, graced the occasion and officially declared the conference open. Following the ceremony, committee sessions commenced in the MBA block.

Three committees were simulated during the two-day conference:

All India Political Parties Meet (AIPPM)

Chairperson: Mr. Soham Siddhanta

Vice Chairperson: Mr. Tejas P V

Moderator: Ms. Ishita A Sampat

Agenda: Deliberation on the sensitive security situation in the Northeast with special emphasis on AFSPA and the immigrant crisis across the Bangladesh and Myanmar border.

United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC)

Chairperson: Mr. Alby Mathew

Vice Chairperson: Mr. Bhaavan Prabhakar

Moderator: Mr. Anish B

Agenda: Addressing the impact of religious extremism on minority rights in South-East Asia and ensuring equal protection under international law.

United Nations Security Council (UNSC)

Co-Chairperson: Mr. Uddeshya Pandey

Co-Chairperson: Mr. Sumit Shingare

Moderator: Ms. Aadhya Sharma

Agenda: Strengthening UNSC peacekeeping missions: reforming the rules of engagement and accountability with special emphasis on the Syrian conflict.

The two-day conference concluded with a valedictory ceremony hosted by Priyanshu, featuring a soulful performance by The Twelfth Note, the NHCE Music Club, that added a melodious touch to the occasion.

The following delegates were recognized for their exceptional performance:

Best Delegate - AIPPM: Delegate representing Laludhoma

Best Delegate - UNHRC: Delegate of Brazil

Best Delegate - UNSC: Delegate of United Kingdom

Best Delegation: CMRIT

NHMUN 2025 proved to be a remarkable success, offering students a valuable opportunity to enhance their leadership, diplomatic, and public speaking abilities.
