

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Preamble

The Student Code of Conduct is to establish a clear and fair set of policies to all students. The core mission of the Student Conduct Code is to pursue scholarly study and ensure holistic development of the students in a safe and secure learning environment. The students must conduct themselves in an appropriate and responsible manner. Good standards of academic learning, integrity and honesty are expected from students. The students are required to abide by the Code of Ethics, a system which promotes student growth and development through individual and collective responsibility.

A good Student Code of Conduct encourages compassionate students, staff and faculty involvement in student life. It focuses on the maintenance and development of a community based upon thoughtful interpersonal education and early intervention.

Applicability

The Code of Conduct is applicable to all the students of New Horizon College, Kasturinagar. The term 'student' refers to persons who are enrolled for a particular course offered by the Institution. The Code is applicable to all students enrolled in the educational campus.

Any activity that causes destruction of property belonging to New Horizon College; any behavior of the students that harm to the health and safety of the student community; any activity in which a police report has been filed, a summon or charge has been issued or an arrest has occurred for any act, will be constituted as a breach of the Student code of Conduct.

Jurisdiction

The Code of Conduct applies to both on-campus and off campus conduct of all students and is in force at all the established educational campuses of New Horizon Educational Institutions.

The code of Conduct covers off-campus behavior during:

- Industrial trips, Internships, field trips or any activities sponsored or authorized by the institution.

Misconduct

Misconduct by any student or an attempt to disobey the Code of Conduct is explained subject to appropriate disciplinary actions. The instances of misconduct include, but are not restricted to the following:
