A MONTHLY NEWSPAPER FOR THE STUDENTS AND BY THE STUDENTS

Bangalore, March 2020

CMM/BHE/DECL/NPP - 230 / 10 / 2033

PRIMARY ANNUAL DAY

A DREAM DOES NOT BECOME A REALITY THROUGH MAGIC, IT TAKES SWEAT, DETERMINATION, PREPARATION AND HARDWORK.

On the 15th of February, Primary Division New Horizon Public School celebrated their Annual Day with great pomp and splendor. The theme of the play was 'The Adventures of Peter Pan'- A Musical, based on the novel of J M Barrie. The play highlighted the adventure of hope and heroic venture of Peter Pan and his companions.

The program began with a spirit of national unity by rendering the National Anthem. The Chief Guest, Ms. Roopa Pai and other dignitaries were welcomed, followed by the traditional lamp lighting ceremony. The program started with the invocation dance. The dancers invoked the blessings of Lord Ganesha with their dedicated, intricate moves and rhythmic classical performance.

Our Principal, Anupama Sethi addressed the gathering with her inspiring words. She felicitated the Chief Guest, Ms. Roopa Pai, one of India's best children's author. She laid, emphasis on the significance of reading books in her talk. Dr. Mohan Manghnani, Chairman New Horizon Educational Institution graced the evening and presided over this colourful festivity.

The play was staged by the young and budding New Horizonites which was enhanced by songs and dances to portray the adventure. This larger than life portrayal drew a lot of cheer from the audience. It was a mix of evocative and vibrant displays. After each scene, the narrators kept the audience wondering about the next agenda of the play with their expressive narration. Our young actors kept the audience spell bound by their scintillating performance.

The audience experienced an exciting journey to Neverland taking them down memory lane to a world of fantasy with Peter Pan, Tinker bell, Gnomes, fairies, crocodiles, pirates, mermaids and tribals.

They were awestruck to see the fairy descend from the moon on stage as if it was a scene from a movie. The young and talented artists with their flawless performance hypnotized their parents and left them wonderstruck.

The little ones won praises from their teachers as they surpassed the teacher's expectations with their enthralling presentation. These are the moments which will be cherished by parents and teachers forever.

NURSERY - FIELD TRIP

Field trips are days of fun out in the sun. A day spent in Cubbon park was a welcome change from the routine classroom environment. The bus journey had excited children waiting anxiously to reach their destination. Any amount of space to run around, games equipment to exercise their little bodies, yummy snacks packed in their tiffin, eating lunch outdoors, were some of the highlights of the field trip to Cubbon park. A day not easily forgotten.

NURSERY DANCE COMPETITION

Dancing to their heart's content was the mantra practised on this day by our tiniest tots. Enthusiastic parents had patiently taught their little ones the best moves to the latest beats. The result was a horde of enthusiastic children who took the stage by storm. Co-ordinated by appropriate costumes, it was a classic example to prove that "One is never too young to learn".

LKG - FIRELESS COOKING

Watching their mother cooking on a daily basis seems like a usual routine to all children. But when the chance of doing this routine, albeit with no fire this time, was given to the children, they lapped it up with a load of excitement. Right from the preparation of setting up the table with the ingredients, to mixing the correct combination, to finally creating a tasty delicacy, the children were bustling with interest and impatience to complete their cooking and get the final verdict. An array of salads, chaats, pastas were whipped up in no time. The myth that all cooking is done with a fire, was surely busted on that day, as they themselves discovered that all one needs is interest and passion to create enjoyable food.

UKG – ENGLISH RECITATION COMPETITION

Diction, pronunciation, vocabulary, were the key features exhibited during the English recitation competition. Six year olds reciting poems written by Rabindranath Tagore, Wordsworth, Elliot was nothing short of music to the ears. Each child had confidence brimming all around. It was truly heartening to hear the works of yesteryear poets being recited even now by our young generation.

Hearty congratulations to Ms. K.Advitiya of UKG 'E' who has participated in the Dance category of the All India 4th National Dance contest and Festival and has won the Jury award.

NURSERY – FIELD TRIP – AQUARIUM

What better way to introduce the world of marine animals to our Nursery children, other than a visit to the Aquarium. The beautiful colours and types of fish fascinated the little ones. Interestingly inquisitive minds had a number of questions for their teachers. It was a group of excited children who returned home with a load of interesting information to tell their parents.

UKG – SHLOKA COMPETITION

India has always been a land of culture and tradition. So, in today's world of modernization, it is nothing short of pride to hear our young generation chant age-old shlokas, with so much reverence, perfect pronunciation, and impeccable memory. A salute to the parents who have taken it upon themselves, to ensure that tradition does not get lost in today's fast-moving world.

UKG – QUIZ COMPETITION

An inter-class competition always has the extra zing during the preparation. So it was no different a feeling with the air of competitiveness during the whole session. The children being adequately prepared by their parents and teachers, had their pulses racing from the beginning till the end. A missed question, a forgotten answer, a rush of disappointment, just showed the excitement not only amongst the participants but amongst their fellow classmates too.

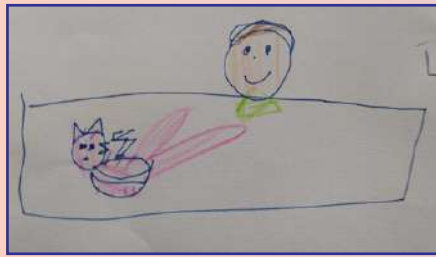

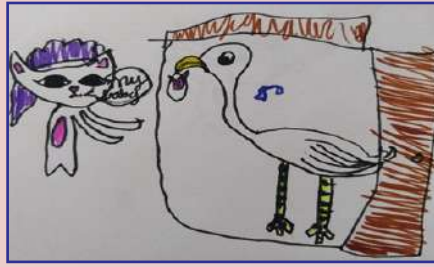

NURSERY – COLOURING COMPETITION

When in Nursery, it is colours that form a major part in their day to day activities. Be it theme, pictures, toys, objects etc. it was interesting to see the enthusiasm with which the Nursery little ones participated in the competition. Completely aware that this competition could win them a prize, each child completed their colouring of the picture with utmost dedication and as much precision as they could manage. At the end, it was hard to believe, that these artworks were the handiworks of 3-4 year olds.

THE PINK CAT

Once upon a time in Cat Town there lived a female cat called Lairy. She was very kind. One winter night a stork gave her a baby. Lairy was very happy. The kitten had pink and purple stripes. The kitten was very odd as it had pink eye balls. It was a very strange kitten and had wings. It was very tough for the mother to give her a bath since she could fly away. And so she was called the Pink cat

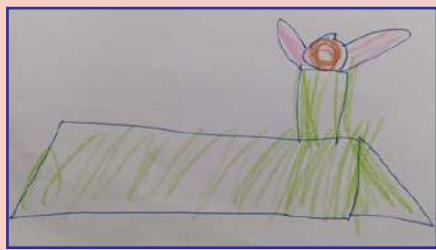

Two years later Pink kitten grew into a cat and almost looked make-believe but was real and had wings. One day a thief wanted to steal Pink cat since it didn't have claws. The thief started to plot how to kidnap Pink cat.

The thief took a sack and took Pink cat away from the Cat Town but the sack had holes, the wings popped out of the holes. The Pink cat flew back to the city and fell into the chimney. The sack fell on a shopkeeper's head. He threw the sack and saw the pink cat sleeping. He was very greedy and thought to himself that this can fetch him a lot of money.

When the pink cat woke up in the morning, she saw pieces of rags left. She followed the rags leading to 'Fun World'. The cat played on the slide and the swing. The Pink cat went to the cafe table and ordered tea. The waitress gave tea and a separate bowl of sugar. The Pink cat put the whole bowl of sugar into the tea.

The cat saw balls lying around and started juggling and everybody seeing this started laughing. Every body from everywhere over the planet had come. Even shopkeepers, movie stars, clowns, puppies, kittens, dogs, cats, tigers, lions etc.

Suddenly the Pink cat saw her mother, Lairy. The Pink cat went with her mother and they went home and lived happily ever after. Saanika Rao, I

THE SIZZLING BARBEQUE

Once there lived a man named Adam. He was a chef and made healthy vegetable recipes but all the people wanted to eat fried items and so his business did not do well. He closed his shop and went straight to the temple for his daily prayers. He was a very strong believer of God. He talked to God, like he was talking to his friends. Distressed he asked God "Why is my business not doing well? I am just serving healthy food? I know you have always helped me. Please I need a little more help".

He went home and sat beside his window, thinking what to do next. Suddenly, a man wearing a mask came and gave him a recipe book. He told him that it was special and would help him start a business. He didn't have many items. He just took a few metal skewers, a frying pan, oil and spices. He roasted some vegetables and spiced them. He gave them to the neighbours to taste. When all of them started enjoying his food he opened a shop and named it "Barbeque Nation". It was a very famous restaurant and did extremely well.

Once when he was asked about the history behind his success he pointed over to the temple and the book, but to his surprise the book was empty with only a symbol of God and the gates of the temple wide open, a mask on the gate which was similar to the one the man had and the idol was missing.

Moral: Do your best and God will do the rest!!! Aarna Kumar VI C

PITCAIRN

Pitcairn is the least populous national jurisdiction in the world. The Pitcairn Islanders are a biracial ethnic group descended mostly from nine Bounty mutineers and the handful of Tahitians who accompanied them, an event that has been retold in many books and films. This history is still apparent in the surnames of many of the islanders. Today there are approximately 50 permanent inhabitants, originating from four main families.

Pitcairn Island is an island in the Pacific Ocean more than 3,000 miles away from any continent. The island's main industry is tourism and most residents live to the age of 90.

The nearest airport is 531 km away from this island and the boat would arrive only once in 3 months and the journey time period was 10 days. Sadana, 8 B

SPIN A YARN

I hit a six and the ball flew over the wall. It was an old, derelict building. As I went to get the ball, I saw that the gates had been chained and locked with a board hanging above it that read, "Trespassers will be Prosecuted". Reading this. I was little apprehensive on me, making me doubt my decision to get the ball, but being the reckless person that I was, I decided to ignore the warning.

I climbed over the fence and dropped to the ground on the other side. I walked along the cobblestone driveway until I was standing in front of the building. It was old and dilapidated, with the marble pillars losing their colour and weeds growing along the cracks in the walls. One could make out from the ornate balconies and Victorian style of architecture that this building was from the British era.

Ignoring the shivers running down my spine, I walked around the backyard where I had seen the ball fall. As soon as I rounded the corner, I stopped dead in my tracks, frozen at the sight which greeted me. The entire backyard was covered with bones, picked clean of flesh. Some still had blood on them, while others had already started decaying. As I stood there, looking on, a horrifying realization dawned on me; these were human bones. I could make out a few skulls and in one place, an entire ribcage.

Suddenly, all the rumours and horror stories that people narrated about this building came rushing back to me. Especially one particular story that spoke about a band of blood thirsty cannibals who had lived here during the British era. People whispered about how the cannibals' descendants still lived in the building and that sometimes, at night, human screams could be heard piercing the air.

The sudden influx of these gory and terrifying tales into my mind made me turn sharply on my heels with the thought to run away. Just as I had taken a step forward, I heard a snap behind me, like the sound of a twig, or, in this case a bone breaking. Fear came over me, seeping into my blood and my bones as I bolted from the place. I ran and I ran and did not stop until I was at least five streets away. Coming to a halt, I vowed to myself that I would never step foot in that plot of land again.

A park is where we play,
 It is where people spend their day,
 Where swings and slides are there,
 Where few people like to stay.
 While the time goes tick – tick,
 Where children play with dolls,
 This is the place we play,
 It is the best place to be.
