UNIVERSAL CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATIONS

To promote international togetherness, awareness among children worldwide and improve their welfare, Universal Children's Day is celebrated each year on November 20. The theme for this year is Inclusion, For Every Child. On the occasion of Universal Children's Day, the students of Pre primary were treated with a fantastic magic show by an eminent magician. A lot of games and fun filled activities were organised for them. Grades 1 to 5 had been on a fun filled trip to Fun World and grades 6 to 10 went to wonderful Wonderla. Outdoor learning experiences broaden horizons, stimulate learning and foster personal growth. Students respond positively to opportunities, challenges and responsibilities. On November 15th, 16th and 17th, students enjoyed their favourite and the most-awaited trip of the year, accompanied by their teachers. Students participated in recreational and adventure activities like thrilling water rides, exciting games based on skill sets and daring dry rides to the fullest. It was an unforgettable day spent in the company of friends and classmates.

DEEPOTSAV

"The festival of lights" came alive at our pre-primary department on the 21st of October with a festive look. Tiny tots came dressed up in their ethnic attire. The teachers explained the significance of the festival with the support of a power-point presentation that Lord Rama won over evil with discipline, humility, tolerance, divinity, and righteousness. Children learned the key values from Deepotsav that can play a significant role in shaping their future if made a part of their daily lifestyle.

The teachers encouraged the children to do at least one good deed every day. It could relate to being obedient, always speaking the truth, or even helping their parents and grandparents in whatever way they could. There is no better occasion than the festival of lights to make a fresh start.

BHAGAVAD GITA SHLOKA CHANTING COMPETITION - FINALS

Reading the Bhagavad Gita introduces us to the truth about life and helps us attain freedom from superstitions and false beliefs. Knowledge gained from the Bhagavad Gita dispels our doubts and builds our confidence.

A Bhagavad Gita Shloka Chanting Competition was conducted on 31st October 2022 for the students who qualified for the finals.

WORLD MENTAL HEALTH DAY

"What mental health needs is more sunlight, more candor and more unashamed conversation." — Glenn Close

There is no health without mental health. The motto behind celebrating World Mental Health Day is to spread awareness and educate people about their mental well-being. The theme of this year is making mental health and well-being a global priority and spreading awareness to break the stigma surrounding it. It is necessary to take care of our Mental health by knowing and being mindful of our emotions, thoughts and behaviours. We have no control over our feelings, thoughts and actions in the face of personal, social, and professional difficulties. Like doctors, we have counsellors, psychologists and psychiatrists to help us deal with specific problems.

Intervention at the right time can help prevent disorders. We must take an oath to accept people with kindness and compassion so that no one has to suffer in silence or feel ashamed to speak about their problems and ask for help. Let us not get lost in the race against life. Be mindful and take conscious care of yourself. It's time we value our Mental Health and Physical Health.

SUNFLOWERS

Her face was freckled
Like a bright golden petal
Her eyes drifted to them,
The sunflowers, as she sat
Under a pleasant bower
It was on a gorgeous meadow,
She let her thoughts overflow
Looking at them closely,
For she had never seen anything so lovely.

An afternoon breeze
Across the yellow hue blew;
They started to dance
Putting her in a trance
Her thoughts perfectly intertwined
Wondering, about the time
When she felt down and dejected;
It was then that a sunflower blossomed
Making her feel accepted and protected.

Even on the darkest days
They don't fail to amaze
And help others heal
The deepest of wounds, they conceal.
To these ever-loved angels,
Her heart would forever be grateful
Joy and pleasure they provide
While hiding a dark secret inside.

HINDI / KANNADA RECITATION COMPETITION

DAMODAR ARTI

Damodar is a very auspicious month for worshippers of Lord Krishna or Vishnu. It normally falls during the months of October and November. It is mentioned in scriptures that one who offers ghee lamps to Lord Damodara during this auspicious month and sings the Damodara Ashtakam (8 verses glorifying the Lord) will get rid of his past sins and develop bhakti (devotion) to Lord Damodara. Damodar arti was organised in the school premises by NIVE on 22nd October 2022. Our students performed 'arti' and took the blessings of Lord Damodara.

WORLD VALUES DAY

World Values Day is held every October on the third Thursday of the month. The objective is to raise awareness of values worldwide and highlight the crucial role of values in the well-being of individuals, families, schools, organisations and communities. In order to acquaint our students with some of our values, an activity was conducted by Samarth Narayan Iyer of grade 8E during the assembly on this day.

O, GLORIOUS BODY, COME TO ME

Glowing with your light,
So bright at night.
Calm and peaceful every night,
Fading away before the morning light.
What a horrible curse to fade away,
Your feelings, O, what dismay!
Many children wish to be with you,
But see only your pure glow.

Come to me, you, graceful body,
Let me understand your agony.
O, you, pure body,
Talk to me, talk to me!
O, glorious body!
Embody yourself and come to me!
O, you, celestial body!
Come to me, come to me!

RIDDLE TIME

THEY COME OUT AT NIGHT WITHOUT BEING CALLED
AND ARE LOST IN THE DAY WITHOUT BEING STOLEN. WHAT ARE THEY?
THE MORE YOU TAKE THE MORE YOU LEAVE BEHIND. WHAT ARE THEY?

CAN WE PLACE OUR FAITH IN THE VEDAS?

At every step in our lives, we put our faith only after ensuring that the authority is reliable. For example, if we buy a movie ticket from any random person in a theatre lobby, we are hesitant and doubtful but if we get it from the ticket counter, we are confident. Similarly, during navigation on roads, Google maps are undoubtedly helpful. However, the more authentic way to locate any address is to enquire from residents of that area. We need to find an authoritative source of information if we want to know the fundamental truths of life. How do we accept a source of information as authoritative? It should be infallible. (never disproved)

It should have withstood the test of time. (never amended)
Does modern science meet these criteria? No, because it is regularly revised, updated and modified. Nothing in modern science is a certain truth; today's fundamental principles may become obsolete tomorrow. How about Vedic knowledge? The Vedic knowledge, since time immemorial is infallible and has never been proved wrong. Each one of its statements has stood the test of time and has never proven to be false. Thus, it is authentic as a body of knowledge. Many times, we have to make amendments to incorrect statements suddenly. Vedic knowledge consists of truths that have existed since immemorial times and have stood the test of time in all circumstances. What is the proof? We will read about this in the next issue.
