A MONTHLY NEWSPAPER FOR THE STUDENTS AND BY THE STUDENTS

Bangalore, February 2024

CMM/BHE/DECL/NPP - 230 / 10 / 2033

RAM MANDIR

In the history of the modern age of Bharat, 22nd January, 2024 has marked a great milestone. Bundles of joy were unfurled on this day. It was the day when the centuries long wait across generations for the Verdict was finally reached. At New Horizon Public School, we celebrated the day as Diwali by following the rituals of Pooja in the Ganesh Mandir and Prasad distribution. School campus was decorated with saffron flags and the icing on the cake was the students in colourful attires. A special assembly was conducted with bhajans and students explained the significance of the day. The ceremony of Pran Pratishtha of Ram Lalla at Ayodhya was live streamed in the classes for the students and the staff to witness the divinity. It was a delight to watch the bright twinkling classrooms and corridors filled with diyas lit by the students. This was a true benchmark of Bharath's rich culture, tradition and beliefs being restored. It sets an example for the youth to know their prodigious history and stand for what is theirs. Jai Shree Ram!

GRADUATION DAY

To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream; not only plan but also believe.

Graduation Day is indeed an important milestone in the lives of the students. It is the time to say goodbye to old friends and to treasure and cherish the beautiful moments you have spent with them. It is a time to look forward to dream, and to spread your wings and soar to greater heights.

The students of the graduating batch of 2023-2024 looked resplendent in their sarees and kurtas as they proudly marched towards the stage.

The Chief Guest of the day Wing Commander Dr. Manav Dutt Sharma was accompanied by Ms Sargam Maghnani, Vice Chairperson New Horizon Gurukul, Ms Anupama Sethi, Principal New Horizon Public School, Ms Ekta Batra, Headmistress Pre-primary Division and Ms Richa Bhatia, Coordinator, Secondary Division.

The students who distinguished themselves in various fields and proved their prowess and adroitness in those fields were felicitated with a citation and a gift.

Each outgoing student was presented with a memento, a token for them to remember their incredible journey in the school.

It was also a proud moment for the students and parents of the batch of 2022-23. These students displayed their tenacity and hard work by raising the bar and securing exceptional results in the ICSE Board Examinations.

The dignitaries addressed the students and encouraged them to work hard, following their dreams and to give back to the society.

As you embark on this new, adventurous journey, be true to yourself and follow your passion and then nothing can ever stop you in your way. Never settle for what you don't want, but keep fighting for what you truly believe in.

Remember your school's motto and pursue the excellence that is within you. Do not follow where the path may lead.

Go instead, where there is no path and leave a trail. Congratulations to the batch of 2023-24!

REPUBLIC DAY

Republic Day celebration at NHPS commenced with the traditional flag unfurling ceremony. The National Flag, adorned with Saffron, White, and Green, was unfurled by the Principal in the presence of the entire school followed by dance, music, and drama performances by students of different grades, which depicted the rich history and values of our nation. The day concluded with a renewed sense of patriotism and a commitment to uphold the principles enshrined in the Constitution of India.

MOBILE LIBRARIES

Turn Your Ride into a Read: The Mobile Library Taxi Initiative

Recently, one sunny afternoon, I booked an auto-rickshaw and as soon as I stepped in, I was surprised to see a small pocketbook library in front of the seat. The books were of different regional languages and covered a variety of subjects. It was definitely a different and unique experience to encounter a small library in an auto rickshaw!

These kinds of initiatives are creative ways to share knowledge and promote reading in unexpected places. It is an innovative and engaging concept that aligns with the idea of promoting literacy and learning.

Here's a quote that might resonate with such a concept : "Knowledge shared is knowledge multiplied. Imagine a world where even the smallest ride offers a journey into a world of ideas, where every turn of a page fuels the engine of curiosity. In this mobile library of wisdom, the fare is not just a destination but a shared experience of learning."

As a part of this initiative, if we can encourage people to donate books and start such mobile libraries on rides on a large scale, it may help our society in various ways like:

1. Utilizing commute time
2. Knowledge expansion
3. Improved focus and concentration
4. Enhanced vocabulary and language skills
5. Cultural exposure
6. Reduced screen time
7. Cognitive stimulation

According to Dr. Seuss - "The more you read, the more things you will know. The more you learn, the more places you'll go."

TRAPPED

In the shadows deep, a silent maze,
Where echoes fade in the endless
haze,
There, I stand with a heavy soul,
Bound by chains I can't control.

A prison built from my own despair,
With walls that rise, an unending
snare,
The air grows thin, suffocating me,
In this place where I long to be free.

The world outside beckons with its light,
But I'm confined in this endless
night,
Dreams flutter by, just out of reach,
As my spirit struggles to find its speech.

Oh, to break free from these bonds
of fear,
To let my spirit soar, crystal-clear,
But here I stay, in this cage of doubt,
Yearning for a whisper to lead me out.

Yet in the dimness, a flicker of hope,
A spark that tells me I still can cope,
For within this darkness, I hold the key,
To unlock the door and set myself free.

Though walls may rise and shadows
may fall,
I'll find the strength to tear down
each wall,
For the spirit within can never be
trapped,
With resilience, all barriers can be rapped.

LITTLE ANGEL

O little angel in the night sky,
You disappear in the morning.
And in the night, you come again shining bright.
But some nights, you are nowhere to be seen!
Where do you go, O little angel?
I so wait for you to be back,
To take me to the dreamland of the starry night.
Your real name is Chandra,
O Chandra, thank you for your light.

Later, I was taken into a big truck, but this time there were thousands of us. The driver started the engine as the smoke came sputtering out and soon, we hit the road. There were two people in the truck, one in the front who was driving and one at the back with us who threw each of us like frisbees every time he saw a house.

After a while, a large white house appeared; this is when my life changed. The man picked me up and threw me as fast as lightning. This was my most enjoyable experience. I was spinning and rolling through the air and finally landed on the veranda of the house.

A huge person, with a beard of around 3 inches, picked me up and started examining my beautiful prints. After a while, he tossed me in a big bundle of other newspapers. It was then I discovered freedom. I could chat with other newspapers, push them, play with them and so on.

One fine day, the children transformed me into a kite, my destiny taking flight. I loved my life, but I guess what legend says is true, 'Every beginning has an end'. One day, while flying high in the sky, the thread started to break. I thought the kids would do something, but they made me go higher. Soon, I was soaring through the air when an eagle pierced me. Helplessly, I started falling to the ground. All my memories were fading in front of my eyes. I don't remember anything after that, but all I can say is "Every soul will get a rebirth."

MY REVIEW OF A FAVORITE BOOK –
THE ADVENTURES OF FELUDA

I love reading books and would like to share my review of one of my favourites- The Adventures of Feluda. It was written by the famous Indian author and filmmaker, Satyajit Ray in 1965. Have you heard of a Jatismar? It is someone who vividly remembers what happened in their previous life. Have you ever met someone who can talk to spirits? Also, did you ever imagine that a peaceful place like Darjeeling can hide exciting mysteries? You'll encounter many such adventures like exciting mysteries around reincarnation, haunted houses, and hidden treasures in this book.

There are 3 main characters –

- 1) Felu Mitter, also called "Feluda" the very clever detective
- 2) Tapeshe Ranjan, also called "Topshe", Feluda's 14-year-old cousin
- 3) Lalmohan Babu, who is very comical but also very helpful

They reside in Kolkata but their mysteries take them to new and exciting places. Till now, I have read three of the stories - The Walking Dead, Danger in Darjeeling and The Golden Fortress.

Let me start with The Walking Dead. One morning, Feluda suddenly receives a letter from someone called Jeevanlal Mallik in a village called Gosaipur, saying he was worried that someone was planning to kill his father.

All three travel to Gosaipur where they meet some very strange people. For instance, the father, Shyamlal Mallik had been living in an age 100 years back! He rides on palanquins and uses British-era punkha pullers (which are fans operated by human beings). Then comes the eccentric Mriganka Bhattacharya who conducts seances and talks to dead people. They even find a mysterious weapon called a "thuggee," a stone wrapped in a cloth, used to gag and kidnap people. Everyone seems suspicious, and the mystery keeps getting deeper, until Feluda uses a peculiar way to unmask the culprit. It's an exciting story, but to know more you must read the book yourself.

Now the second story - Danger in Darjeeling. Feluda and Topshe have come to Darjeeling to enjoy a peaceful vacation when Topshe overhears a hushed conversation between two old men, Rajen Babu and Tinkori Babu. It seemed that Rajen Babu had been receiving threatening letters by an anonymous source. Feluda then decides to stay in his house and protect him from any danger.

Immediately, strange things start happening. Why is Rajen babu always tensed? Why is he haunted by scary-looking masks at night? How come his son-in-law suddenly appears in Calcutta, when he is meant to be in London? Why is someone threatening him in the first place? You will be thrilled to discover how Feluda finds all of this out and uncovers the entire backstory.

Finally in the third story, The Golden Fortress, after Gosaipur and Darjeeling, our detective trio travels across the country and reaches the barren yet mesmerizing desert of Rajasthan. They go there to solve the mystery of an 8-year-old boy, Mukul who is a Jatismar. He claimed that in his previous birth, he lived near a golden fortress surrounded by sand, and he wanted to go there then. Unfortunately, he had no clue where the place was. To find this out, Dr. Hemanga Hajara, a curious parapsychologist takes the help of Feluda and they all travel to Rajasthan.

Interestingly, they're not alone! A gang of criminals tried to kidnap the boy since they felt he could lead them to a treasure in the fortress. Adding to the troubles, the boy Mukul keeps behaving weirdly, walking up to a strange man and saying he knows him. After many adventurous camel rides and train journeys in the desert, our trio finally cracks the case.

I really loved these three stories and am reading more and more of Feluda. I highly recommend all of you to read the book and do tell me how you like it!

AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A NEWSPAPER

It was a bright Sunday morning. I was taken to a large building with seven floors and in the front, there was a huge board, on which it was written "Sujatha Newspapers". In seconds, a big muscular man carried me and about 200 of us in two boxes. Confusion reigned but one by one, each of us was going into the printing machine. When they came out, they emerged adorned with vibrant text.

It was so beautiful. They had text in bold, underlined, italics and with different colours and sizes. They even got a variety of pictures. I have always wanted to have a print on me. Soon it was my turn and as the machine sounded "whirr whirr", my heart started racing. I was loaded into the machine where the most painful thing happened to me. It felt like a hundred needles were piercing me. It was about 20 minutes of extreme pain, which I faced before I came out of the machine.
