

SARGAM 2015

A State Level Inter-Collegiate cultural fest

Theme :VOICE OUT

New Horizon Educational Institution organized a two day State Level Inter Collegiate Cultural Fest, 'Sargam' on 14th and 15^h of September, 2015. College festivals are the most effective way of bringing youth under the same platform, enhance social interaction and facilitate exchange of cultural ideas and thoughts. A huge gathering of around 20000 students were witnessed in both the days of the fest. Around 3000 participants were registered in the fest. The students came from various PU, Degree and Engineering Colleges all across the state of Karnataka. About 150 colleges participated in the mega event. "VOICE OUT" was the theme for Sargam, 2015. It was indeed a celebration not only for New Horizonites but for every person involved. As always this year too, Sargam 2015Voice Out aimed at bringing the student community together under one roof shedding away all the differences, bringing a sense of unity and team work among them and it was provided an opportunity for the students to express themselves in creative forms.

Shri. BNS Reddy, Additional Commissioner of Police,graced the occasion as Chief Guest. His motivational speech was attracted by all the students. Marking this gigantic event of the celebrations, enroot stood the collection of creativity and expressions in the form of a souvenir. The Souvenir released by Chief Guest and dignitaries on the dais. Followed by felicitation to the sponsors.

This year's major attraction wasthe theme "VOICE OUT". The mega event "MUZIKET' provided the opportunity to use their creative talents, to voice out against the evils that pull our country down. And another attractive event SUNBURN CAMPUS held on 14th evening featuring world renowned DJ Shaan. His energy and grooves were pumped up the audience. There were 12000 foot falls on the day of the event and ground was jam packed.The mega event was won by New Horizon College Kasturinagar and second prize bagged by MVJ College of engineering and New Horizon College Marathalli. There are a number of other events as well with exciting cash prizes. They include Group Dance (filmy), Contemporary Dance, Street Dance, Battle of Bands, Collage,Freez It, Mime, Switch Foot, Singing (group and solo), Computer Gaming, Short Movie Making. There were two events introduced this year, i.e. Turn Coat and Stand up Comedy. We got a good response for both the events.

The entire campus was full of young energetic people who have come to entertain and to be entertained. The event witnessed exuberant performances and the juke box which played nonstop music held thousands of students for hours together.

Mr. Bunt Bohra, CEO, Goldman Sachs was the Chief Guest for the Valedictory function held on 15th September 2015. Winners of both Junior and Senior events were rewarded and the overall best performance college award went to New Horizon College of Engineering. Scholarship award was given to college topper and toppers in each department.

At the end the theme of Sargam 2016 – ‘MILITARY’ was announced amid the jubilant audience. We are proud to say that Sargam is now one of the popular and best college fests in the city.
